

PERSONALITIES
OF THE BIBLE
JUDGES

LESSON 3: It was apparent to Israel that Joshua would become her leader after Moses died. But now Joshua has also died and other than the High Priest, Phinehas, no one has been groomed to lead Israel. How will Israel survive without one strong leader? Our lesson continues today in Joshua 14

APPLICATIONS FROM LESSON 3

BONDS THAT HOLD ISRAEL TOGETHER

1. They all worship the same GOD (Deut. 6:4-7)
2. They are all related to the Patriarchs –Abraham, Isaac & Jacob (Deut 6:10)
3. They saw and experienced the same miracles of God through 70 years of ministry of Moses and Joshua.
4. They lived in the same places at the same time (Canaan-Egypt-Canaan)
5. They had the same Laws (10 Commandments spoke by God and 613 Laws (Leviticus).
6. They had the same Levitical priesthood and The Tabernacle.
7. All the men were required to journey three time a year to worship at The Tabernacle.
8. They spoke the same language—Hebrew.
9. They are all related to each other (all cousins)
10. They are all part of the Abrahamic Covenant (Gen 17:7)
11. God has given them the same plan and purpose. All families of the earth will be blessed (Gen 12:3)
  - A. Produced the Messiah
  - B. Wrote the Bible
  - C. The teaching tool to the world about the true and living God. (Zech 9:20-23)Application for #11: Every Christian today has a job description of being God’s teaching tool to an unsaved world (1 Peter 2:9)
12. They also had the same command from God “destroy the Canaanites”. God gave the Canaanites many years to repent and turn to Him.
