

Lesson 1: In our last lesson, Jacob's family was settled comfortably in Goshen, Egypt. Goshen was the most fertile land in the entire nation. Although the Egyptians hated shepherds, Jacob's sons and grandsons were free to raise their flocks and herds. But why were they in Egypt? Didn't God call Abraham, Jacob's grandfather, to the land of Canaan? These answers can be found in the pages of Scripture. We begin today in Acts chapter 7:
