THE KINGS

THE KINGS : Lesson 67

Thirty-five year old Jehoshaphat got off to a great start as Judah's king. He placed troops in Judah's fortified cities. He honored God, and did not seek the Baals and destroyed the Asherim. He sent the priests and Levites throughout Judah teaching The Law to his people. As a result, Jehoshaphat was loved by Judah, who paid tribute to him. God gave peace and wealth to the king and his people. Judah was enjoying a season of abundance. We continue today in 2 Chronicles 17.
