

Personalities
Of the Bible

Noah

- Gen 1:26-28; 6:5-11; 18:20-23;
- Lev 17:11; 20:26;
- Nu 14:10-12;
- Duet 6:4-6;
- Josh 1:8;
- 1Sam 8:7,8; 16:7;
- Ps 14;
- Is 6:10; 29:13-16; 64:6;
- Jer 17:9,10;
- Mal 3;
- Matt 6:21; 9:4; 12:34-37; 13:14,15; 15:1-20;
- Mk 12:28-34;
- Jn 3; 8:44; 10:27-30; 14:15; 15:18;
- Rom 3:9-18,23; 6:23; 8:1-17; 10:8-21; 12:1,2; 13:8-14;
- Gal 5:16-26;
- Eph 1:1-14; 2:8-10; 4:29,30;
- Col 4:6;
- 1Thess 4:1-12;
- 1Tim 2:1-6;
- Titus 2:11-15; 3:1-8;
- Heb 4:12; 9:22; 10:25;
- 2Pet 3:9;
- 1Jn 1:5-10; 2:15-17;

Lesson One: Mankind was so wicked, the Scriptures state “the Lord was sorry that he had made man on the earth and was grieved in His heart.” (Gen 6:6). Yet, among this wickedness, one man found favor in God’s eyes. Noah was described as a righteous man who walked with God. Even the terrible sinful condition of the world did not prevent Noah from developing a personal relationship with God. We continue today in Genesis 5:28:

